

Index to Contents, Jan.-Dec., 1931

The following is a Summary of articles which have appeared in the twelve issues of The Manufacturing Confectioner during 1931. A limited number of bound volumes of this publication are available at $6.25 each, post paid (in U. S. A.). Or we can furnish complete sets of back issues at $3.00 for twelve copies

The Manufacturing Confectioner, 1143 The Merchandise Mart, Chicago.

Production

Eric Lehman Comments on Christmas Package Assortments	January
Reclaiming Profits from Scrap	January
A Discourse on Dollar Packages, by Eric Lehman	February
Reclaiming Profits from Scrap	February
The Technic of Experimental Candy Batch Manufacture, by John Hamilton	March
Fruit Candies—Part I. The Place of Fruits in the Diet, by W. C. Cruess	March
A Chat on Home-Mades and Fudges, by Eric Lehman	March
Reclaiming Profits from Scrap	March
Fruit Candies—Part II. Fruit Jelly Candies, by W. V. Cruess	April
Laboratories at Your Service—No. 1. The Carbohydrate Division	April
Eric Lehman Gives His Views on Easter Goods and Chocolate Bars	April
Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow from the Production Man's Viewpoint, by Mario Gianini	May
Character of Candies of 1941, by A. Adams Lund	May
Scientific Progress of the Candy Industry in Materials, Processes and Products During the Past Decade, by H. S. Paine	May
Demonstration of Modern Fondant and Hard Candy Production at Exposition of N. C. A.	May
What Is Right and What Is Wrong with Today's High Grade Assortments, by Eric Lehman	June
Reclaiming Profits from Scrap	June
Scientific Progress of the Candy Industry in Materials, Processes and Products During the Past Decade, by Dr. H. S. Paine	July
Making the Right Weather for Candy Making, by Tresper Clark	July
Eric Lehman Offers a Few Tips for Improving Your Marshmallows and Fudges	July
Health Candies, by Orville H. Kneen	August
Fruit Candies—Part III—The Use of Dried Fruits in Candy, by W. V. Cruess	August
"What Is the Matter with the Candy Business?" by Eric Lehman	August
Scrap	August
Eric Lehman Philosophizes on the Good Old Summer Time	September
New Methods of Treating Cocoa Beans, Dr. Ing. Alfred R. R. Laessig	October
Which Will It Be—Free Deals or Quality? Eric Lehman	October
Fruit Candies—Part IV—Candied and Glacé Fruits, by W. V. Cruess	November
Candy Quality Is Improving, by Eric Lehman	November
Some Steps Forward in Applied Science by the Confectionery Industry in 1931, by H. S. Paine	December
Candy Passes in Review, by Eric Lehman	December

Raw Materials

A Food of the East Comes West, by Dr. Chas. E. Fearn	January
Refined Corn Sugar Now on Par with "Sucrose"	January
Cacao Products Under the Federal Food and Drugs Act, by J. W. Sale	February
Highlights in the History of Sugar	March

A New "Big Business" for Manufacturing Confectioners, by Robert Maurice Preston	April
Some Properties of Cane Sugar That Affect Candy, by L. Lang	June
"Certified," by Horace Terhune Herrick	August
Corn Syrup's Place in Candy, by John M. Krno	August
Chocolate Turns Toward Corn, by A. Adam Lund	September
The Corn-Cure for Chocolate? by R. Whympere	October
New Methods of Treating Cocoa Beans—Part II—The Heat Drying Process, by Dr. Ing. Alfred R. R. Laessig	November
Shelling and Selling Walnuts, by Hermann R. Habicht	November
Resume of AOAC Reports for 1930 on Cocoa Products, by J. W. Sale	November

Chocolate Work

Chocolate and the Colloid Mill, by Eugene B. Edwards	January
If You Aim to Produce the Best Chocolate, No. XVI, "Chats on Chocolate," by Robert Whympere	January
The Importance of Laboratory Control in the Manufacture of Chocolate and Cocos, by Clarence P. Harris	February

Candy Clinic

Holiday Assortments	January
Dollar Chocolates	February
Home-Mades and Pocket Packages	March
Easter Novelties, Chocolate Bars and Moulded Goods	April
High Priced Package Goods	May
Fancy Package Goods	June
Marshmallows, Fudges and Caramels	July
Hard Candies and Summer Goods	August
Summer Packages and Candies	September
Bar Goods	October
Bar Goods, Penny Goods and Cordial Cherries	November
1931 Clinic Selections	December

Management

Profit Planning for 1931, by Ralph G. Wells	January
Plotting Your Course for '31, by A. C. Baker	February
Are You Managing Your Business or Being Managed by It? by F. A. Magee	February
The Value of Association Accounting, by F. A. Magee	April
What Has Happened Since 1921 and What Is the Outlook for the Next Decade?	May
A Ten-Year Perspective on the Candy Industry, by Alton Miller	May
Candy Cost Accounting School Postponed, by F. A. Magee	May
Want Name for a New Candy Bar? by Harry Klein	May
Uniform Cost Accounting Promotes Industrial Stability, by A. H. Wiedeman	July
The Confectionery Industry and Its Future, by L. H. Kortright	July
One Year Hence, by Walter C. Hughes	December
Group Research on the Pay-as-You-Go Plan, by John Bishop Thorpe	December
It's Time to Reduce the Credit Hazard, by E. H. Lothian	December
Let's Analyze, by Karl W. Hoff	December

Index to Contents, Jan.-Dec., 1931

The following is a Summary of articles which have appeared in the twelve issues of The Manufacturing Confectioner during 1931. A limited number of bound volumes of this publication are available at $6.25 each, post paid (in U. S. A.). Or we can furnish complete sets of back issues at $3.00 for twelve copies

*The Manufacturing Confectioner,
1143 The Merchandise Mart, Chicago.*

Production

Eric Lehman Comments on Christmas Package Assortments	January
Reclaiming Profits from Scrap	January
A Discourse on Dollar Packages, by Eric Lehman	February
Reclaiming Profits from Scrap	February
The Technic of Experimental Candy Batch Manufacture, by John Hamilton	March
Fruit Candies—Part I. The Place of Fruits in the Diet, by W. C. Cruess	March
A Chat on Home-Mades and Fudges, by Eric Lehman	March
Reclaiming Profits from Scrap	March
Fruit Candies—Part II. Fruit Jelly Candies, by W. V. Cruess	April
Laboratories at Your Service—No. 1. The Carbohydrate Division	April
Eric Lehman Gives His Views on Easter Goods and Chocolate Bars	April
Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow from the Production Man's Viewpoint, by Mario Gianini	May
Character of Candies of 1941, by A. Adams Lund	May
Scientific Progress of the Candy Industry in Materials, Processes and Products During the Past Decade, by H. S. Paine	May
Demonstration of Modern Fondant and Hard Candy Production at Exposition of N. C. A.	May
What Is Right and What Is Wrong with Today's High Grade Assortments, by Eric Lehman	June
Reclaiming Profits from Scrap	June
Scientific Progress of the Candy Industry in Materials, Processes and Products During the Past Decade, by Dr. H. S. Paine	July
Making the Right Weather for Candy Making, by Tresper Clark	July
Eric Lehman Offers a Few Tips for Improving Your Marshmallows and Fudges	July
Health Candies, by Orville H. Kneen	August
Fruit Candies—Part III—The Use of Dried Fruits in Candy, by W. V. Cruess	August
"What Is the Matter with the Candy Business?" by Eric Lehman	August
Scrap	August
Eric Lehman Philosophizes on the Good Old Summer Time	September
New Methods of Treating Cocoa Beans, Dr. Ing. Alfred R. R. Laessig	October
Which Will It Be—Free Deals or Quality? Eric Lehman	October
Fruit Candies—Part IV—Candied and Glacé Fruits, by W. V. Cruess	November
Candy Quality Is Improving, by Eric Lehman	November
Some Steps Forward in Applied Science by the Confectionery Industry in 1931, by H. S. Paine	December
Candy Passes in Review, by Eric Lehman	December

Raw Materials

A Food of the East Comes West, by Dr. Chas. E. Fearn	January
Refined Corn Sugar Now on Par with "Sucrose"	January
Cacao Products Under the Federal Food and Drugs Act, by J. W. Sale	February
Highlights in the History of Sugar	March

A New "Big Business" for Manufacturing Confectioners, by Robert Maurice Preston	April
Some Properties of Cane Sugar That Affect Candy, by L. Lang	June
"Certified," by Horace Terhune Herrick	August
Corn Syrup's Place in Candy, by John M. Krno	August
Chocolate Turns Toward Corn, by A. Adam Lund	September
The Corn-Cure for Chocolate? by R. Whympere	October
New Methods of Treating Cocoa Beans—Part II—The Heat Drying Process, by Dr. Ing. Alfred R. R. Laessig	November
Shelling and Selling Walnuts, by Hermann R. Habicht	November
Resume of AOAC Reports for 1930 on Cocoa Products, by J. W. Sale	November

Chocolate Work

Chocolate and the Colloid Mill, by Eugene B. Edwards	January
If You Aim to Produce the Best Chocolate, No. XVI, "Chats on Chocolate," by Robert Whympere	January
The Importance of Laboratory Control in the Manufacture of Chocolate and Cocos, by Clarence P. Harris	February

Candy Clinic

Holiday Assortments	January
Dollar Chocolates	February
Home-Mades and Pocket Packages	March
Easter Novelties, Chocolate Bars and Moulded Goods	April
High Priced Package Goods	May
Fancy Package Goods	June
Marshmallows, Fudges and Caramels	July
Hard Candies and Summer Goods	August
Summer Packages and Candies	September
Bar Goods	October
Bar Goods, Penny Goods and Cordial Cherries	November
1931 Clinic Selections	December

Management

Profit Planning for 1931, by Ralph G. Wells	January
Plotting Your Course for '31, by A. C. Baker	February
Are You Managing Your Business or Being Managed by It? by F. A. Magee	February
The Value of Association Accounting, by F. A. Magee	April
What Has Happened Since 1921 and What Is the Outlook for the Next Decade?	May
A Ten-Year Perspective on the Candy Industry, by Alton Miller	May
Candy Cost Accounting School Postponed, by F. A. Magee	May
Want Name for a New Candy Bar? by Harry Klein	May
Uniform Cost Accounting Promotes Industrial Stability, by A. H. Wiedeman	July
The Confectionery Industry and Its Future, by L. H. Kortright	July
One Year Hence, by Walter C. Hughes	December
Group Research on the Pay-as-You-Go Plan, by John Bishop Thorpe	December
It's Time to Reduce the Credit Hazard, by E. H. Lothian	December
Let's Analyze, by Karl W. Hoff	December

Miscellaneous

Candy Executive Club Planning Educational and Social Program.....	January
An open letter to the members of the N. C. A. of the U. S. and the candy industry.....	January
Proposed Credit Survey.....	March
This Manufacturer Will Be Sitting Pretty in 1941, C. Ray Franklin.....	May
Directory of Exhibitors at the N. C. A. Exposition.....	May
Arno Sanders Heads National Confectioner's Association.....	June
Candy's Way Out.....	June
Canadian Convention of Confectionery & Biscuit & Chocolate Manufacturers.....	June
Biscuit Confectioners Annual Convention at Chicago.....	June
Associated Retail Confectioners Convention at Boston.....	June
Pennsylvanians Elect John Bachman President of State Confectioner's Association.....	July
Pennsylvania Jobbers Meeting.....	July
Report of S. W. C. A. Convention.....	August
Sound Philosophy for Confectioners, by W. A. Patterson.....	September
M. C. Institute.....	September
The Russian Sweet Tooth, by Hermann R. Habicht.....	October
Dr. Klein's Radio Address on the Candy Industry.....	October
My Seventeen Days in Russia, by H. G. Altman.....	November
Practical Ways of Using the Census of Distribution.....	November
Just What Is This Candy Institute of America?.....	December
Sweets to the Rescue, by Donald A. Laird.....	December

Packaging and Merchandising

Research Proves Cellophane's Performance on Candy, by L. B. Steele.....	June
The Humidor and the Freshidor.....	July
Practical Package Design.....	September
Do You Believe in Buried Treasure?.....	September
Make Your Silent Salesmen Talk.....	September
A New Packaging Material, by W. W. Willison.....	September
Regulations Regarding Statement of Weights Must Be Observed.....	September
Will Design Copyright Give Confectionery the Go-By? by Waldon Fawcett.....	October
Simplification and Standardization of Products and Packages, by Robert Whympers.....	November
The Demand Is There, by Jerome Kohlberg.....	November

Distribution

Census Spotlights Popularity of Chocolate-Covered Bars.....	January
Stop Selling Candy, by F. A. Magee.....	January
Your Advertising Needs H. E. This Year.....	February
Statistics at a Glance.....	March
The Advertiser—The Essence of Profitable Advertising.....	April
The Psychology of Everyday Foods, by Dr. Donald A. Laird.....	June
Can the Market for Five Cent Goods Be Expanded? by Francis Chilson.....	October
The Cause and Cure of Declining Sales, by E. J. Roberts.....	October

Digest of Current Technical Literature

PACKAGING

Wrappings for Confectionery.....	January
Packing Quality in Glace Fruits.....	January
The New Combination Technique in Package Selling.....	February
Borrowing from Nature for Candy Box Design.....	April
Paper Wrappings for Confectionery.....	April
The Show Window Package.....	July
Moisture-Proof Transparent Cellulose Wrappings.....	August
Market Studies Bring Package Inspiration.....	August
Photo-Electric Cell Controls Package Wrapping.....	August
Know Your Wrappings.....	October
New Transparent Wrappings.....	November
Confectionery Packages Changing Buying Habits.....	November

PRODUCTION

Changing Habits in Food Consumption.....	January
Scientific Control of Grinding in the Chocolate Industry.....	January
Comparative Candy Tests with German Potato Glucose and American Corn Glucose (Corn Syrup).....	January
The Production and Place of Lactic Acid.....	February
The Automatic Conditioning and Temperature Control of Chocolate in An Enrober.....	February
Ridding the Plant of Rats.....	February
Activities Under Federal Food and Drugs Act Relative to Confectionery in 1930.....	March
Production of Vanilla Extract.....	March
Our Changing Food Supply.....	March
Procedure for Making Dextrose Candy.....	March
Rat Control.....	March
Use of Aluminum Vessels in the Food Industry.....	March
Production of Citric Acid by Fermentation.....	April
Improving Cacao Beans by Extraction.....	April
The Processing of Candied and Glace Fruits.....	April
Fumigation with Ethylene Oxide.....	April

Use of Milk and Milk Products in the Candy and Chocolate Industries.....	April
Chemistry in Industry.....	July
Federal Standard Grades for Pecans Established Recently.....	July
Improved Milk Dryer.....	July
Technical Progress in the Confectionery Industry During 1930.....	July
What the Last Census of Manufactures Tells of Food Production (Confectionery and Chocolate).....	July
Scientific Advances in the English Candy Industry.....	July
Rational Methods of Scoring Food Products.....	August
Science Vitalizes Cashew Nut Production.....	August
Production of Candied Fruits.....	October
Definitions Relative to Chocolate Adopted by the International Congress of Chocolate and Cocoa Manufacturers in Antwerp, Belgium, in 1930.....	October
Tying Machine Performance in a Candy Plant.....	November
Colors Analyzed and Recorded Automatically.....	November
Method of Incorporating Colors or Flavors in Candy.....	October
Refrigeration Increases Salability of Chocolate Coated Candy.....	November
New Method for Testing Agar, Gelatin and Other Jellies.....	November
Bleaching Almonds.....	November

RAW MATERIALS

Honey Jelly: Its Preparation and Properties.....	January
The Choice of Chocolate Ingredients.....	January
Advantages of Use of Nuts.....	February
Making Confectionery from Sugar Syrup.....	February
Regarding Vanilla, Vanillin and the Mixing of the Same with Sugar.....	February
Vintage Flavors Now Produced Without the Use of Alcohol and Suitable for Use in Candy.....	March
Lecithin in Industry.....	March
Cocoa Butter Versus Coconut Butter.....	March

Important Factors in Sugar Consumption.....	March
Absorption of Moisture by Sugars at Various Humidities.....	March
Extracting and Applying Tea Aroma.....	March
Formation of Emulsions.....	March
The Brazil Nut.....	April
Lecithin and Fluidity of Chocolate.....	April
Dates: An Historical Fruit.....	April
Popular Heart Nuts.....	April
The Use of Raisins and Other Grape Products in Candy.....	May
Vintage Flavors for All Uses Made Without Alcohol.....	May
Figs—Candying and Preserving.....	May
Utilization of Prunes (Including Use in Candy).....	July
Behavior of Certified Food Colors (in Candy).....	July
Chocolate and Candy in 1930.....	July
Pears—Candying and Preserving.....	July
Black Walnuts, a Profitable Product.....	July
Gum Thickeners and Emulsifiers for Flavors.....	July
Chocolate Dragees.....	August
Candied Citrus Fruit Peels.....	August
Use of Soya Flour in Confectionery and Other Food Products.....	August
Pineapple Processing and Canning in Hawaii.....	August
Relative Sweetness of Various Sugars.....	October
Coating and Preserving Confectionery, Fruit, Etc.....	October
New Chocolate Product.....	October
Fruit Candies.....	November
Sugar Confectionery: A Review of the Industry.....	November

FOOD VALUE OF CANDY

Candy—The Energy Food.....	February
Peanut Ranks High in Mineral Elements.....	July
Chocolate and Tooth Decay.....	October

MANUFACTURED PRODUCTS

Licorice.....	January
Crystallized Candies.....	February
Vegetable Candy.....	March
Synthetic Vanillin.....	April
Imported Candy.....	May
Marzipan and Persipan Candies.....	July